

Clark Academic Center

Calvary's Academic Support Center

Dr. Terri L. Stricker, Director

Who, What, Where, When, and Why?

➤ Who participates in the Clark Academic Center?

➤ Student Tutors

➤ Students at Calvary – YOU!

➤ Faculty Members

What* does Clark Academic Center provide?

- Academic assistance
 - Paper editing for content and Turabian Style
 - Tutoring for review of class material
 - Accommodations for learning disabilities
 - Test proctoring for students who miss tests or quizzes
 - A friendly study environment
 - Support and encouragement for academic success
-

Where is Clark Academic Center located?

Conveniently located in the library building. The library will be moving this semester.

One classroom is also available in CAC.

CONVENIENT EMAILING TO CAC

- ▶ EMAIL YOUR PAPER FOR REVIEW TO CAC TO learning@calvary.edu
- ▶ Your paper will be returned in one to three days.

When is CAC open?

- Monday–Friday: 9 am to 4 pm.
- Closed during lunch & chapel.
- Saturday: 1 to 3 pm.
- Some weekday evenings in dorm.

Why should students come to Clark Academic Center?

- To have essays and papers reviewed for grammar, content, and Turabian Style.
 - To get encouragement with academic work.
 - To obtain assistance that leads to improved grades.
 - To excel in classes.
 - To gain skills in studying, time management, and test taking.
-

Clark Academic Center Objectives

- The Center is committed to helping Calvary students with academic work in every possible way.
- We invite you to experience Clark Academic Center for academic success at Calvary University.
 - Dr. Terri Stricker & the student tutors